"When I bought this pipe, I was wearing a bulky coat, with a jacket inside, so I would appear heavier than I am; silvered glasses; a cap with a visor that covered my forehead; and kleenex inside my nostrils which expanded them."

In the same letter Ted states that when he sees a motorcycle tearing up the mountain meadows, he wants to watch the bullet rip through his flesh and, "I want to kick him in the face while he is dying".

Thanks to Mignarda and his buddy Rusconi for paying to get the exhibits of the sentencing memo.
