Dear Alex,

Yesterday I received the copy of The Saga of the Volsungs that you ordered for me from Barnes & Noble. Thank you very much. I will send this book to my favorite lady as a Christmas present.

I'm sorry about the confusion over the other book that someone ordered for me from Penguin Putnam. That other book was completely unexpected and I didn't know what to make of it, so I thought maybe you had ordered The Saga of the Volsungs from Penguin Putnam and they sent me the other book by mistake.

So, again, I thank you very much for The Saga of the Volsungs. I hope that everything is going well for you and all your family.

Best regards,

Ted Kaczynski
