1. From Ted to Dugan — July 24, 2020

Dear Ms. Dugan,

Yesterday, I received a copy of Leslie Webster & Michelle Brown, The Transformation of the Roman World, A.D. 400–900, which, evidently, you ordered for me. Thank you! I do appreciate it!

I look forward to hearing from you. As you know, I'd love to recruit you to be an anti-teacher.

Yours for Wild Nature,
Ted Kaczynski

P.S. Just a few hours after writing the foregoing note I was pleased to receive your letter of 7/13/20. You know Russian? Good! Very important language. You might want to consider taking up the study of Chinese. I'll write you more very sorry, but right now I have to finish a long letter to some lawyers who are working to make the BOP (Bureau of Prisons) loosen up some recently-imposed restrictions on prisoners' communications. — TJK

2. From Ted to Dugan — July 28, 2020

Dear Ms. Dugan,

Or would you prefer to be addressed as Teenage Brat? That would make a cute nom de guerre for an anti-techer. Anyway, I hope to be able to write you more at length in the near future, but as usual I have far more to do than I have time for, so in the present note I'll just give you contact information for a few actual or potential anti-tech people. First there's Benjamin Lepine, or Lepire, whom I strongly suspect you know already...

The "unoffical" is supposed to be misspelled as shown. But can "email.com" be right? Maybe he means "gmail.com". Then there is
