Dear Chris,

I'm sorry I haven't been prompt to answer your latest letters (one undated but postmarked 2/1/10, the other dated 2/6/10) but there is just too much to do, and I can't keep up with it all.

large sites. But when hundreds of little reactors are scattered everywhere, it's dead certain sure that the waste from many of those reactors will be incompetently, negligently, or dishonestly handled, and we can look forward eventually to a world in which radioactive contamination will be practically everywhere.

2/2/10 By the way, just to make sure there is no the photo misunderstanding, I did not give your address to Michael the prison J. Carroll. I did not say I trusted Carroll. I have should have corresponded with him for only a short time, so I copies. hardly know him. So if you write to him, you write at your own risk. Not that there is much risk anyway. letter d If you find out he's a fool or a fake it may be sound qu annoying, but it won't really do <sup>you</sup> any harm.

I hope the weather isn't giving you too much trouble now, and that all is well with you in other respects.
